

English at Work

What percentage of employers are planning to improve the English skills of their employees?

All company sizes — All sectors — Showing Global

Top management

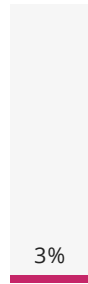

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Marketing

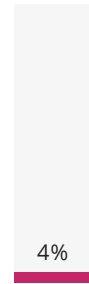

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Accounting & Finance

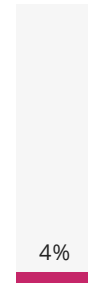

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Sales

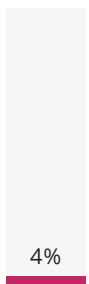

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Human resources or Personnel

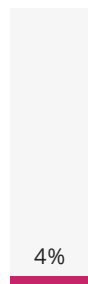

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Production

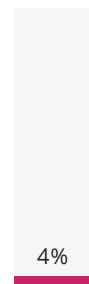

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Customer services

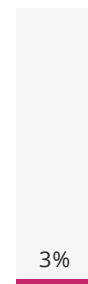

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

Logistics or Distribution

Global

Cambridge English
Cambridge English

What does this mean?

Across all job roles, employers have plans to improve the English skills of their employees. The focus of this improvement was mainly seen for top and middle management roles.

If you are planning to improve the English language levels of your employees, we offer a suite of three Business English certificates. The content in the Cambridge English: Business Preliminary, Vantage and Higher exams is based on everyday work and business tasks, to ensure your employees can use English confidently.